

Is there a FIRE in you?

Take the first step, volunteer at your local Fire Department!

Volunteers are needed in Orleans County Fire Service -

There are a wide variety of volunteer opportunities available that will allow you to serve your community and learn valuable skills at the same time. Donating a few hours a month to your local chapter of the American Red Cross or Salvation Army, participating in disaster drills and exercises, or volunteering at your local firehouse or emergency operations center are all great ways to network, get to know the emergency response personnel in your community and lend a helping hand. There are also local community service organizations that recruit and retain volunteers to deploy if a disaster occurs within the community. These volunteers are trained to assist in times of crisis and are a vital part of local response and recovery efforts. You could even work with these organizations and become a community preparedness liaison and help your community to develop, assess and implement its own preparedness initiatives. Contact one of the departments below or call/ e-mail the EMO for assistance.
